INVIGORATING CORDIAL, PURELY Vegetable in its composition. This invaluable Cordial is extracted from Herbs and loots, which have been found after years of ex perience, by the most skillful physicians, to be nossessed of qualities the most beneficial in the diseases for which it is recommended; and hence whilst it is presented to the public as an effica cious remedy, it is also known to be of that char-acter on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. In cases of Impotency, Hemorrhages, Disordered Sterility, Menstruation, or Suppression of the Menses, Fluor Albus or Whites, or for

Debility arising from any cause, such as weakness from sickness, where the patient has been confined to bed for some time, for females cordial cannot be excelled in its salutary effects or in loss of muscular energy, irritability, physica prostration, seminal weakness, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, sluggishness, decay of the procreative functions, nervousness, &c., where a TONIC medicine is required, it will be found equ superior to any compound ever used.

To Females.—Henry's Invigorating Cordial is one of the most invaluable medicines in the many complaints to which females are subject. It as sists nature to brace the whole system, check ex-cesses, and creates renewed health and happiness Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to. are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom

Young Men.-That solitary practice, so fatal to the existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its victims, from an ignorance of the danger to which they subject themselves

Nervous Debility, weakness of the system and premature decay. Many of you may now be suffering, misled as to the cause or source of discase. To those, then, who by excess have brought on themselves premature impotency, involuntary eminal emissions, weakness and shrivelling or the genital organs, nervous affection, or any other consequences of unrestricted indulgence of the sens in passions, occasioning the necessity of re-nouncing the felicities of Marriage, lessening both mental and bodily capacity, hold! Henry's invigorating Cordial, a medicine that is purely vegetable, will aid nature to restore those important functions to a healthy state, and will prove of service to you. It possesses rare virtues, is a general remover of disease, and strengthener of the system.

As a Tonic Medicine, it is unsurpassed. We do not place this cordial on a feeting with quack medicines, and, as is customary, append a long list of recommendations, certificates, &c., begin-ning with "Hear what the Preacher says," and such like; it is not necessary, for "Henry's Invig-orating Cordial" only needs a trial to prove that will accomplish all we say. The Genuine "Henry's Invigorating Cordial" is put up in eight oz. pannel bottles, and is easily recognised by the manufacturer's signature on the label of each bottle, (to counterfeit which forgery.)

NEW YORK, May 8, 185 Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chan-

Christopher Adams, complainant, James Guthrie, Amos Adams, Isaac N. Comstock, Defendants. Samuel Byington, and

Richard Wallach. THIS bill of complaint in the above stated cause states, that the said complainant, on or about the twenty-fifth day of November, A. D., 1851, entered into a contract with the United Stat agreeing to supply the government with five millon of brick for the extension of the Capitol. That said complainant, on or about the 12th day of January, A. D. 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong, the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum of four thousand dollars.

The bill further states that the said Strong, on or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, assigned the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received from the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or promise for the payment of four thousand dollars, or thereabout, as well as a lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on sald contract, until the said sum of four thousand dollars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock assigned their right, title, and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wallach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract. The object of said bill is to obtain an injunction against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defend-of January, A. D. 1855, that the matters and things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint agrinst the defendants, shall be taken for confessed against the said Amos Adams and Isaac pious notes to the American edition, and the work N. Comstock, and such decree made in the premises against them, and each of them, as the court shall deem right, unless the said defendants eresting period. appear in the court on or before the second Mon-day in May next, and answer the said bill, and show cause if any they have why a decree as prayed for by the complainant should not be pussed by the court.

Provided the complainant cause this order, and the substance and the object of the said bill of complaint, to be published in some newspaper in the city of Washington, twice a week for six successive weeks, the first insertion thereof to appear at least four months before the second Monday in May next.

HECKERS' FARINA, prepared expressly for families, a delicate and appropriate food for all seasons, and one of the most priate food for all seasons, and one of the most economical, nutritious, and wholesome preparations ever brought to the table, eminently combining the gratification of the palate with ample and healthful sustenance of the body.

Strictly speaking, Heckers' Farina is neither stringent nor laxative, but restorative, strengen ing the digestive and absorbent system. In disordered bowels, diarrhae, dysentery, and even in cases of cholefa, when food is deemed admissible by the physicians. Heckers' Farina cannot fail to by the physicians, Heckers' Farina cannot fail to be salutary; and wherever known is extensively used in hospitals and private practice. The preservation of health or the prevention of sickness is at least as important as the curing of disease. People in health should therefore use Heckers' Farina freely, as common food, to preserve the inestimable blessing.
